Addressing Pension Fund Solvency

Last year, Congress established the Joint Select Committee on Solvency of Multiemployer Pension Plans in response to the impending insolvency of several multiemployer pension funds. While the Joint Select Committee was ultimately unable to reach consensus on a solution, the committee process highlighted the increased focus on solvency of pension funds. This session will explore the importance of how pension fund solvency is defined, how plan trustees are able to manage plan solvency, and how pension benefits are guaranteed or backstopped around the world.

Keynote: Ted Goldman, Director of Policy, Research and Analysis Department, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation

Panel Discussion: Mariah Becker, Director of Research and Education, NCCMP
Ted Goldman, Director of Policy, Research and Analysis Department, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation

Rafael Quevedo, Principal Economist-Statistician, European Central Bank
Richard Ingram, Executive Director, Teachers’ Retirement System of the State of Illinois
Colleen Crawford Gardner, Executive Deputy Comptroller Division of Retirement Services, New York State and Local Retirement System

3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Innovation in Plan Designs

There is growing realization that sustainable benefit designs must share the risks inherent in retirement benefits more equitably between all the stakeholders in the system, and there are a wide range of approaches being developed that address this equity in different ways. This session will focus on innovative plan designs either in use or under consideration throughout the world, including target benefit design plans in Canada, as well as composite and variable annuity designs in the United States.

Keynote: Robert A. Wylie, Executive Director, South Dakota Retirement System

Keynote: David Dean, Senior Vice President, Benefits Consultant and Actuary, Segal Consulting

Amundi is Europe’s largest asset manager by assets under management and ranks in the top 10 globally. It manages €1,476 billion of assets across six main investment hubs. Amundi offers its clients in Europe, Asia-Pacific, the Middle East and the Americas a wealth of market expertise and a full range of capabilities across the active, passive and real assets investment universes. Clients also have access to a complete set of services and tools. Headquartered in Paris, Amundi was listed in November 2015.

Thanks to its unique research capabilities and the skills of close to 4,500 team members and market experts based in 37 countries, Amundi provides retail, institutional and corporate clients with innovative investment strategies and solutions tailored to their needs, targeted outcomes and risk profiles.

In employee savings and retirement services, Amundi is a leading player with 50 years’ experience through its dedicated business line: Amundi Employee Savings & Retirement (ESR). With more than 4 million employees serviced worldwide and more than €56 billion of assets under management in more than 120 countries, Amundi is at the heart of multinational retirement strategies.

Amundi is one of the innovators in the Pension Plan universe by creating, in 2014, Amundi Pension Fund (APF), a multi-company, multi-country but single pension fund vehicle, based in Luxembourg, to help corporates to manage efficiently cross-border pension schemes. Operational in 8 European countries, APF also proposes a “world compartment”, which is dedicated to employees hired outside Europe. To serve employees and employer, Amundi has developed a proprietary built-in digital platform that is fully integrated within APF. Importantly, Amundi also offers investment solutions with an open architecture approach.

In 2018, Amundi won the award in “European Pensions Innovation Award (Pension Fund)” at the European Pension Awards and the award in “Modern DC & hybrid Strategies” at the IPE Awards.

Anticipating clients’ needs and being innovative to bring new added value and services to our clients are part of Amundi’s DNA.

Mariah M. Becker, MAAA, EA, ACA
Director of Research and Education
NCCMP

Mariah Becker joined the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP) in 2016 as the Director of Research and Education. In this role, she works extensively to evaluate and design policy & technical proposals to protect and strengthen the multiemployer system, as well as to develop analysis to evaluate the economic impact of federal policies, regulations and industry developments.

Prior to joining the NCCMP, Mariah worked with single and multiemployer benefit programs for 15 years as an actuarial consultant. Mariah spent 10 years with Segal Consulting, focusing on multiemployer defined benefit pension plans. While at Segal, she worked with clients to assess their funded position and to develop strategies for improving funding levels, while balancing stakeholder concerns and the changing legal landscape. She also advised on other issues including actuarial projections of plan funding, as well as plan design cost studies, mergers, and withdrawal liability.

During her time with Segal Consulting, Mariah worked closely with the NCCMP on the review and design of legislation affecting the multiemployer plan community and participated in the Retirement Security Review Commission, convened by the NCCMP to consider challenges and potential solutions facing multiemployer pension plans. Mariah assisted in analyzing the recommendations resulting from that Commission, including the proposed composite or GROW plan design. Prior to her work with Segal Consulting, she worked with Mercer focusing on multiemployer defined benefit pension plans.

Mariah is a frequent speaker on multiemployer pension topics. She brings a strong understanding of the actuarial issues facing a broad range of multiemployer defined benefit plans in a range of industries, from large national multiemployer plans to smaller local plans and union staff plans. She is a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries, an Enrolled Actuary, and an Associate of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries. Mariah is also a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries Multiemployer Plans Committee. She graduated magna cum laude from Colgate University with a BA in Physics-Astronomy.

Susan Bird, CEBS, Fellow ISCEBS, HIA, ICD.D
President, The McAteer Group of Companies

In her day-job Susan is the president of The McAteer Group of Companies with offices in Alberta and Ontario Canada. Levering a career of 30 years she provides advanced governance and consulting services to trustees governing multi-employer welfare and pension trust funds.

In May 2017 Ms. Bird was elected as Chair of the World Pension Alliance a global organization that represents the interests of over 400 million pension plan participants and USD $7 trillion in assets. Susan is a director of MEBCO – the Multi-Employer Benefit Council of Canada – an organization that lobbies governments on issues impacting multi-employer health and pension plans.

She is a Past Chair of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans (IF) Canadian Board, Canadian Investment/Corporate Committee, Canadian Education Committee and Canadian Trustee Education Committee and Strategic Planning Committee. She has been involved in the development of education programs geared towards new and experienced trustees to help them improve overall governance. She is a speaker at the Osgoode Hall Law School pension law program.

Susan participated in two Canadian Association of Pension Supervisory Authorities (CAPSA) Industry Task Forces on Pension Plan Governance. She is the immediate past-Chair of the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) advisory panel on multi-employer pension plan issues.

She is a graduate of the University of Toronto Rotman School of Management Institute of Corporate Directors achieving its ICD.D designation and is a chartered director. She graduated from York University with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in economics.

As a volunteer, and departure from pensions and health benefits, Susan is a Director of the York Region Children’s Aid Society and chairs its risk management committee.

Bob Blakely
President
MEBCO

Bob Blakely has been a plumber & pipefitter, a union official, a naval officer, a labour side employment lawyer and a Building Trades leader. This backdrop has given him a unique perspective on the condition of working people in Canada.

Labour in Canada has changed, and the changes need people who are prepared to step up and try to make a difference.

Bob and his spouse Geraldine Rajotte have a blended family of three grown up and almost independent children, Douglas, Nicola and Andrew, 4 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. They are also the entourage, and domestic servants to their three very privileged cats. This family gives them their primary focus and makes them one cat short of crazy!!
David Brenner
Senior Vice President and National Director of Multiemployer Consulting
Segal Consulting

Mr. Brenner is a Senior Vice President and the National Director of Multiemployer Consulting for Segal. He is based in Segal’s Boston office. Mr. Brenner specializes in consulting to multiemployer funds, including health and welfare plans, defined benefit pension plans and defined contribution pension plans. He also consults to joint labor management apprenticeship and training programs on operational issues. Mr. Brenner’s current clients include a range of local, statewide, regional and national multiemployer plans. He is the chair of Segal’s Multiemployer Leadership Group, which is responsible for strategic leadership and thinking regarding multiemployer plans. He is also a member of the Working Committee of the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP), providing guidance on public policy, legislative and regulatory issues and other matters of interest to multiemployer plans. Mr. Brenner is a member of the Board of The Association of Union Constructors (TAUC). Mr. Brenner is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst with a BA with Individual Concentration (Labor Studies). He received a JD from Northeastern University’s School of Law and is admitted to the Bar in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Mr. Brenner is a frequent speaker at benefits conferences and other industry forums and has taught labor history courses at the college level.

Christopher Brockmeyer
Director of Employee Benefit Funds
The Broadway League

Christopher Brockmeyer has been the Director of Employee Benefit Funds for the Broadway League, the national trade association for the Broadway theatre industry, since 2007. Mr. Brockmeyer serves as an employer-appointed trustee (in most cases as Co-Chair) on 11 multi-employer pension funds, 6 health funds and 5 annuity/401(k) funds with nearly $7 Billion in assets, covering 125,000 current or future retirees and providing health care coverage for 25,000 employees (plus their dependents) in the entertainment industry.

Before arriving at the Broadway League, Mr. Brockmeyer was the Director of Labor Relations at Live Nation/Clear Channel Entertainment for 7 years, negotiating and administering all labor relations activities for the Company’s 100+ North American venues, its music promoting business, its theatre presenting operations and its role as a commercial theatre producer. Previously, he spent nearly 8 years working for the performers’ unions, Actors’ Equity Association (AEA) and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA).

Mr. Brockmeyer serves on the Board of Directors of the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP), a non-partisan organization based in Washington, DC dedicated to the advocacy of multiemployer plans through communication with government officials and members of Congress. He was actively involved in the development and passage of the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act of 2014 (MPRA). Mr. Brockmeyer is a regular speaker at investment and employee benefits conferences and was recently honored by Institutional Investor magazine with the 2014 Taft-Hartley Plan of the Year award.

In addition to his work in the entertainment industry, Mr. Brockmeyer served a four-year term as a Councilman for the Town of North Salem in Westchester County, New York and currently serves on North Salem’s Planning Board. He is also a trustee of the North Salem Open Land Foundation.

Mr. Brockmeyer received his B.A. (Philosophy and History) from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and his M.A. (Philosophy) from the New School in New York City.

President
Local 175
United Food & Commercial Workers (UFCW)

Shawn Haggerty has been President of Local 175 of the United Food & Commercial Workers (UFCW) union since November 2007. The local represents more than 70,000 unionized workers across many sectors of the economy in Ontario. Since he became President, the Local Union has grown from about 50,000 to 70,000 through mergers and a consistent focus on organizing.

Shawn first gained exposure to Unions as a member of UFCW Local 416P while working as an electrician in the maintenance department at Robin Hood Multi-Foods in Port Colborne. He became the President of that Local and was also the Secretary-Treasurer for UFCW Local 617P until its merger with Local 175 in the year 2000.

Following the merger, Shawn worked as a Union Representative, and then became North West Regional Director in 2003. In 2005, he was appointed as an Executive Assistant, and in 2006, the Local 175 Executive Board elected Shawn to be Secretary-Treasurer. In the fall of 2007, he was elected President.

In addition to his responsibilities as President of UFCW Local 175 for the past 11 years, Shawn is also an UFCW International Vice President. Moreover, Shawn sits as a Trustee on several benefit plan boards and also serves on the Labour-Management Committee for the Ontario Ministry of Labour.

Cameron Hunter, FCIA, FSA
Principal, Eckler Ltd.

Cameron joined Eckler Ltd. in 1994. He is a Principal of the firm with more than 25 years of experience as an employee benefit plan consultant.

Cameron specializes in consulting to multi-employer pension and benefits plans, and leads Eckler's Trustees Trusteed Plans group. He is responsible for a number of the firm’s major employee benefits clients and, along with members of Eckler’s Trustees Trusteed Plans team, provides consulting advice to a range of trades – including electricians, ironworkers, operating engineers, plumbers/pipefitters, carpenters, rodmen, sheet metal workers, elevator workers, steelworkers, machinists, drywallers, graphic communication workers, millwrights and the education sector workers.

He consults on pension and benefits matters to many different employee groups, including those in the construction and education sectors, university employees (both faculty and non-faculty), and manufacturing and airline industries. He is currently an advisor to labour at three universities as they develop a multi-employer jointly sponsored pension plan.

Cameron advises a number of employer plans (ELHTs) and assisted both CUPE and the Principals’ and Vice- Principals’ associations in their negotiations with the Ontario government on agreements to establish ELHTs. These ELHTs transfer responsibility for providing employee benefits from the school boards to the trusts. He continues to advise these organizations on plan design considerations and the operations of their ELHTs.

Cameron is active in the profession and in the pension and benefits industry. He has published articles on pension issues and is a regular speaker on pensions and benefits related topics. He has served on a number of professional committees for the Society of Actuaries and Canadian Institute of Actuaries; on the Fellowship Admissions Course Management Committee; and on the CIA’s Education and Examination Committee, which he chaired in 2000. He was also a member of the CIA Task Force reviewing actuarial reports of multi-employer pension plans. He is a recipient of the CIA’s silver award for service to the profession.

Cameron is currently a director and vice-president of the Multi-Employer Benefit Plans Council of Canada, and he is a former member of the Financial Services Commission of Ontario’s Actuarial Advisory Committee. He has served on the CAPSA Investment Policy Committee’s Industry Advisory Group, Model Law Committee, and Prudent Investment and Funding Committee’s Industry Advisory Group.

Cameron was a member of the group that lobbied the Ontario government to adopt more appropriate funding requirements for multi-employer pension plans – including eliminating solvency funding for these unique plans. Recently, he was a witness to the Senate Legal and Constitutional Committee and the House of Commons Standing Committee on Finance with respect to the impact of Bill C-377 on pension and benefits plans.

In 2014, he was a witness to the Standing Committee on Alberta’s Economic Future with respect to the impact of Bill 10 on multi-employer pension plans.

Cameron is a graduate from the honours actuarial science program at the University of Western Ontario, and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and the Society of Actuaries.

Speaker, Consultant, Employability Expert, Work Health Architect, Author
Paul ter Wal is an internationally sought-after employability expert and work place architect. For more than 20 years he has been in the speaking, consulting and training business for executives, HR directors and employees.

Increasing PROFITABILITY by decreasing ABSENTEEISM.

According to the Gallup Engagement Index a staggering 87% of employees worldwide are not engaged at work. The world has a crisis of engagement, with serious and potentially long-lasting repercussions for the organizations. This is where Paul ter Wal steps in. The former lawyer works on both sides – employer and employees – to create work happiness and loyalty. His concept is based on finding the “Non-Negotiables” and the core values of the individual as well as the company. Because a highly engaged workforce means the difference between a company that thrives and one that struggles. When employees are engaged, they are passionate, creative, and entrepreneurial, and their enthusiasm fuels growth. These employees are emotionally connected to the mission and purpose of their work.

The former lawyer at a social benefits organization as well as Assistant Director of a Public Health Insurance company started his consulting career at Capgemini in the field of social security and labor law. Today Paul ter Wal is a professional speaker, advisor, vision and work health specialist. Paul is recognized as Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) by the Professional Speakers Australia as well as Fellow (FPSA) by the Professional Speaking Association in the UK and Ireland.
Kristof Woutters
Global Head of Pension & Insurance Relations
Candriam Investors Group
Brussels, Belgium

Kristof Woutters, based in Brussels, Belgium, is Global Head of Pension & Insurance Relations at Candriam Investors Group. In this function, Kristof is responsible for giving strategic advice to pension funds and insurance companies across Europe. This often involves the design of advanced investment solutions that take into account specific client needs and respective regulatory frameworks, such as integrated LDI solutions.

Kristof has over 20 years’ of experience in the investment management industry. He is a regular speaker on various investment or pension & insurance topics at seminars and events and he is an active member of numerous associations in this field.

Prior to joining Candriam Investors Group in 2000, he worked as Senior Consultant at Pragma Consulting, an independent institutional investment consulting company specialised primarily in advising pension funds and financial institutions world-wide. For 5 years he worked on various projects around asset management for pension funds. He also contributed to the ‘Rebuilding Pensions’ report, sponsored and published by the European Commission, containing a ‘Code for Best Practice for Occupational Retirement Institutions’. This report was later used as a major source of inspiration for the Commission’s first IORP Directive.

Kristof earned a master’s degree in commercial engineering at the University of Leuven (KUL, Belgium) and an additional master’s in economics from the University of Groningen (RUG, the Netherlands).

Besides spending time with his family Kristof often goes sailing, regularly competing in national and international regattas.
